Module 4: The salience of nebivolol in the management of hypertension

Learning Objectives and Content Outline:

4.1 Nebivolol unique mechanism of action
- The importance of NO-mediated vasodilation (impact of NO-mediated mechanism in patients with uncontrolled hypertension and chronic kidney disease)
- The importance of high cardioselectivity

4.2 The value of nebivolol in hypertension

4.3 Nebivolol as an effective and well tolerated antihypertensive agent in patients with hypertension and other comorbidities

4.4 How nebivolol can help your patients (treatment pathways for monotherapy and combination therapy)
Step-by-step registration

SCAN

Go to https://cpdonline.my or scan the website QR code

REGISTER

Click on ‘Register Now’ or ‘Login’

WELCOME!

Earn & Manage your CPD anytime, anywhere @ Medcomet CPD Online

We provide educational online CPD modules for FREE to all medically qualified HCPs.

REGISTER NOW!

MEMBERS AREA

- Login
- CPD Modules
- My Profile
- Registration
- Retrieve Password

For first time registration:

Upon verification of your professional profile, a password will be sent to your email. You will be prompted to create a new password when logging in for the first time.

CHOOSE

Go to CPD courses and choose a CPD module

You will receive 1 CPD point upon successful completion of each module with at least 60% of questions answered correctly.

The CPD point will be accredited automatically into your MMA event app account.